Synthetic Demonstration Policy — Policy ID: CMS-DEMO-001

NOTICE: SYNTHETIC DEMONSTRATION DOCUMENT — NOT A REAL INSURANCE POLICY. Created strictly for demonstration and testing of evidence review systems.

Policy ID	CMS-DEMO-001	Version	1.0
Effective Date	2026-01-01	Expiry Date	2026-12-31
Coverage Category	Private Motor Vehicles (Cars & Two-Wheelers)	Applicable Jurisdiction	Motor Vehicles Regulatory Scope (Synthetic)

SECTION 1 — POLICY PERIOD

Clause 1.1 — Coverage Period

Coverage applies only to incidents occurring between the policy start date and policy end date as specified in the policy schedule.

Clause 1.2 — Covered Vehicles

Coverage applies exclusively to the motor vehicle identified by registration number and vehicle details in the policy schedule.

SECTION 2 — ACCIDENTAL DAMAGE

Clause 2.1 — Accidental Damage Coverage

Physical damage caused by accidental collision, impact, overturning, or similar accidental external events is covered subject to the terms, conditions, and deductibles of this policy.

Clause 2.2 — Repair Settlement

For covered accidental damage repair claims, the insurer may consider the reasonable repair cost supported by a valid, itemized repair estimate from an authorized garage or repair facility.

SECTION 3 — THEFT

Clause 3.1 — Theft Coverage

The total theft or loss of the insured vehicle due to burglary, housebreaking, or theft is covered subject to the conditions and verification procedures of this policy.

Clause 3.2 — Theft Evidence & FIR Requirement

A theft claim must include a certified copy of the First Information Report (FIR) lodged with the relevant law enforcement authority promptly following discovery of the theft.

SECTION 4 — EXCLUSIONS

Clause 4.1 — Deliberate Damage

Any loss or physical damage caused deliberately, willfully, or with fraudulent intent by the insured person, vehicle custodian, or with their active connivance is strictly excluded from coverage.

Clause 4.2 — Excluded Use

Loss or damage arising while the vehicle is being used for an explicitly excluded purpose, including commercial hire without endorsement, organized racing, pace-making, or speed testing, is not covered.

Clause 4.3 — Fraudulent Information

A materially false statement or forged document intentionally provided in support of a claim may block settlement and requires mandatory investigator escalation and review.

SECTION 5 — IDVClause 5.1 — Insured Declared Value

The Insured Declared Value (IDV) represents the agreed maximum settlement amount for total loss, constructive total loss, or unrecovered theft claims, less any applicable policy deductible.

Clause 5.2 — Repair Claims & IDV

For ordinary repair claims, the IDV is not automatically the repair settlement amount; the reasonable covered repair cost is evaluated independently subject to policy depreciation schedules and conditions.

SECTION 6 — CLAIM NOTIFICATIONClause 6.1 — Notification Window

The insured should notify the insurer of any accidental damage or theft incident within 7 calendar days of the occurrence or discovery of the loss.

Clause 6.2 — Late Notification

A claim notification received after the standard 7-calendar-day window requires a written explanation and investigator review rather than automatic rejection.

SECTION 7 — REQUIRED DOCUMENTSClause 7.1 — Accident Claim Documents

An accidental damage claim requires the submission of: (1) a completed Claim Form, (2) an itemized Repair Estimate, and (3) a detailed Incident Description.

Clause 7.2 — Theft Claim Documents

A theft claim requires the submission of: (1) a completed Claim Form, (2) an official First Information Report (FIR) from law enforcement, and (3) a detailed Incident Description.

Clause 7.3 — Evidence Quality & Consistency

Submitted claim documents containing material contradictions regarding incident date, damage particulars, or claimed financial figures must be reviewed and clarified before a final settlement recommendation is made.
